Hayom Yom: 6 Nissan

הַנְּסִיּוֹן הַרְאָה, אֲשֶׁר כְּשִׁמְמַעְטִים בְּחֻקֵּי הַתּוֹרָה, וְעוֹבְדִים בְּסֵדֶר וּבְתוֹקֶף, עַל פִּי הַנְּעִימוֹת שֶׁל תּוֹרָה, יִמִּין מְקַרְבֵּת וּשְׂמַאל דּוֹחָה, אֲזִי פּוֹעֲלִים בְּיָדָאִי, וּבְפֶרֶט בְּעִנְיָנִים הָעִיקָרִים מֵעִקְרֵי הַדָּת.

Experience has shown that when one limits his speculation [about what to do] and works instead in a structured and determined way, [but simultaneously] according to the Torah's pleasant ways – “the right hand draws near, while the left hand carries”<sup>1</sup> – he will certainly have an effect [on others]. This is particularly true with regard to [communicating] the fundamental principles of our faith.<sup>2</sup>
