Hayomyom.org

Hayom Yom: 19 Tammuz

מֵהַנְהָגוֹת אַאַמוּ"ר: כְּשֶׁנָּסַע מִבֵּיתוֹ, אַף שֶׁנִּשְׁאַר בְּמָקוֹם אֶחָד כַּמָּה חֲדָשִׁים, הָיָה אוֹמֵר בְּכָל יוֹם אַחַר הַתְּפִלָּה תְּפִלַּת הַדֶּרֶךְ — בְּלֹא שֵׁם וּמַלְכוּת.

Among the practices of my revered father, the Rebbe [Rashab]: When traveling from home, he would recite the Prayer for Travelers1 every day after the morning prayers — albeit without mentioning G-d's Name or His sovereignty — though he might remain in a single place for several months.2